Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Local Space Astrology by Michael Erlewine

If you were to walk outside your home at the moment of birth and look around you, the Sun, Moon, and planets would each be somewhere in the sky above and around you. For example, the Moon might be rising low to the Southwest, and so forth. If you were to draw a line from your birth spot in the compass direction of the Moon, it would extend across (and around) the Earth, passing through any number of cities. The circular line of those cities and places mark a path across the earth toward the direction of the Moon. If you did this for the Sun and all the planets, you would be examining a map of the space surrounding your locale. That map would be a standard geographical map with the direction of each planet laid out on it as lines. This is why I originally called this technique Local Space Astrology.

At any given moment, the Sun, Moon, and all the planets are above a certain spot on earth and in a particular direction from your birthplace. In fact, not only planets and stars, but also cities, countries, and even the local water tower or the neighbor's house has a place and direction on this map. It does not matter how far away an object is, we only want to know in what direction it is. You can walk toward, write letters to, or get up and relocate into, for instance, the direction of Venus or Mars, and we each do this all the time.

Local Space maps are useful when it comes to relocation and/or when we want to pick a city (and direction) of a planet we would like to experience more of, like perhaps Venus (love, beauty, value) or Jupiter (might help us find our life path or career), and so forth. There are also planets we might like to experience less of, as well, so we might avoid those spots. But these lines are also great for picking spots for vacation and business trips, as well as checking out where friends and not-so-friends live. It could be someone all the way in China or as close as a neighbor's house.

Understanding Local Space allows you to fine tune your life by picking the places you live or want to visit in terms of what they can add or take away from your overall life experience. For example, if you are struggling to find the right career, you might want to take a trip or have a vacation in the direction of the planet Jupiter (the planet of vocation) and see what develops. Or, as I myself did, you may want to permanently relocate to a Jupiter spot until you can find your way to making a living. Or, if you find yourself living in a city along your Saturn line and you feel too hemmed in and inhibited, you might want to just move to a city in line with a planet that is more encouraging. You get the idea.

Check out your Local Space Chart and look at each line to see in what direction it is and what cities or places it passes through. Read about and consider what each planet offers you in the way of qualities and changes. Don't forget about the places where your friends and not-so-friends live, whether they are far away cities or just across town. Give it some thought. Local Space can be very useful in fine-tuning your life experience through astrology.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Libra

You can easily poke your nose into other people's business here and even get rewarded for it. You'll be seen as a sign of change -- and one for the better, if you do it sincerely and with a smile. You may not always be the first in, but you'll surely be the second, so expect to share the spoils, and the profits.

Midheaven in Cancer

People here are usually willing to say you're sincere and make your moves from the heart, so act accordingly, even when you're not. You can make great inroads by appearing to make an important stand on issues, as long as you are willing to make a reasonable compromise at the endgame. The appearance of winning is everything.

Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Neptune Tri DS (Strong)

You have imagination -- your own and others' -- going for you here, and playing parts may come quite naturally to you, without having to give up your own true identity. A sense of what people would like to see you as comes naturally, and so does your natural ability to actually fit the idealized mold.

Neptune in Third House

People will say anything here (and you reply in kind), but getting them to be specific and make airy conversation turn to concrete results may be a bit dicey. It's not necessarily insincerity or dishonesty that's to blame, just good intentions without solid foundations. When needs are specific, insist on clarity -- otherwise be happy to shoot the breeze.

Natal Uranus Local Space Line (Strong)

Uranus and places along that line offer us more independence, opportunities for us to break with convention, and do something a little different. This is the planet of freedom and liberation. Uranus also provides insights into our life, particularly as to what binds or holds us down, and how to get beyond them. Inventions, innovations.

Traveling or vacationing at places along this line can be nothing short of liberating, throwing caution to the winds, and trying new things. These places can also be good for insights and sudden illumination with problems that you have been trying to work through, but have made no progress with to date.

Uranus in First House

This has a good climate for you to be a discoverer, and adventurer who breaks into new areas and opens up people's eyes, sometimes including your own. You do need to go about it diplomatically, however, as a too-unvarnished approach may startle or offend those who haven't heard all you have to say. Surprise is not always an advantage.

Natal Jupiter Sqr MC (Strong)

Living up to overstated expectations here can be challenging, and overpublicity can leave you in the dust as quickly as it put you on top. People can get too much of a good thing, so do what you can to see that they only hear about your best efforts and don't have to wade through draft versions or needless revisions you let escape in good faith.

Jupiter in Seventh House

Come here clueless, leave with a plan. You'll find plenty of people, possibly even just the right ones, offering just what it takes to fill up your plate. To benefit, arrive hungry and be willing to try anything -- you didn't come here for more of the same old fare. When taste of adventure is offered, give it a try.

Natal Venus Ssq IC (Strong)

If they offer you something you don't want here, it's not meant to offend. They just thought they'd heard you liked it. Getting your desires and tastes spread abroad here can take some extra footwork, so don't be afraid to speak up until things are as you want them to be. You may have to repeat yourself.

Venus in Second House

Show me the money may be a little harsh way to say it, but it may be both the way you feel here and what your main goals will be. Opportunity tends to present itself in tangible form, so getting your hands on it is the natural reaction. Just watch that you don't seem to take more than your share.

Natal Jupiter Local Space Line (Strong)

Jupiter places can be the keys to career and vocational matters, literally the path we tread through the obstacles of life. In Sanskrit, the word for Jupiter is guru, and that says a lot, for the guru is the guide personified. Getting through life, finding some way through life that suits us, that works for us, is very important. Jupiter is the guide or key to the pathways through life.

Traveling to or relocating along this line will stimulate career-related activities, perhaps making it clear what would be a good livelihood to begin with or help you move to the next step in a career already in motion. It can be helpful to take a trip or vacation to such a spot and see if you get the new ideas you are looking for.

Natal Neptune Ssx IC (Medium)

You can be tagged as a dream-maker, a wish-fulfiller here, and whether you become another Walt Disney may be all about how you play the hand that's given you on arrival. What people hear about you may not be real, but it's not bad, either, and pretty easy to step in and fill the role in a comfortable and profitable way.

Natal Jupiter On DS (Medium)

If you want a new beginning and to keep on making new beginnings, this is the place to start. There is an air of ambition that will infuse you and set you to all kinds of approaches you hadn't tried and directions you hadn't explored. Seeds planted here germinate overnight and flower well ahead of time for an early harvest. It's all about growth -- the kind provided by the resources here and the kind you bring to the mix to make it all fatten up and blossom. But the success is in the mix, not in simply clear-cutting the landscape. If you seem to move too fast for the locals, you're going to have your ambitions turned against you, so you have to be inclusive in how you handle yourself. Especially on first arrival, remember that you must provide help before you can lead, establish a track record before you can be believable. It's all about growth, and good husbandry requires good nourishment as well as good seed. Abundance is here for the asking but will only be sustained when it's yours to give as well. Positive thoughts will be the first to mind, but realistic ambitions and follow-through will make the dream come true here.

Natal Pluto Local Space Line (Medium)

The Pluto line points to power places, often where people are forced to do things or where they force others. Equally, this can relate to penetrating insight into our most vulnerable areas, into sensitive parts of our past or mind -- the skeletons in our closet. Psychoanalysis, depth psychology, investigations, and research are included.

A trip to a Pluto place can provide deep insights of great value, but can just as easily find you face-to-face with some of your most vulnerable issues. You could find yourself being pushed around or pushing someone else around, and power and the use of it is the coin of this realm.

Pluto in Twelfth House

When push comes to shove, somebody loses, and in this environment it's likely to be you unless you choose your confrontations with the greatest care. When you think you can power through a situation, chances are you're dreaming and headed for a fall. If you must, take a leaf from the Borgias, and do it carefully and behind closed doors.

Natal Sun Sqr DS (Medium)

There may be some conflict between the way you really are inside and the first impression people get upon meeting you here. First meetings don't tell the tale, so you'll have to follow-up until they've got it straight whom they're really talking to. Don't expect the first date to get the results you ultimately want, so have the second already lined up.

Sun in Third House

You can get your personality across to anybody and everybody here, and you'll feel like doing just that. You'll likely find a wide and receptive audience, though you may have to translate what you have to say slightly differently each time to say it. Every time you pick up the phone, it's someone different, so don't worry if you have to repeat yourself.

Natal Mars Tri AS (Medium)

You should find your stamina level increasing here -- or, at least you find it easier to get the job done without having to waste extra energy. Your first stroke is usually the right one, so you save energy by not having to repeat efforts in order to create accomplishment. Easy and invigorating.

Mars in Ninth House

There's plenty of inner and outer space here to absorb your energies, and you may find you have to pace yourself to avoid getting eaten up by all the possibilities. Ability increases with exercise and familiarity, but it helps to seek help from people who have already passed this way before. Welcome, traveler, if you make your own bed.

Natal Venus Local Space Line (Medium)

Your Venus line offers a lot more than just having something to do with love and loving. In fact, Venus has to do not only with loving, but also with valuing anything, people and things, as well as appraising, and possessions, in general. Any city or place along this line, and it runs in a great circle around the earth, will bring the qualities of Venus into focus. Venus rules everything to do with cherishing, valuing, and measuring things and people. Sometimes it is love, as we know it, but as mentioned above, it is valuation of any kind -- estimating the value and quality of something. In this sense, it covers possessions and possessing of all kinds.

If you don't appreciate enough, whether that be people or things, locations in this direction should find you at least counting and measuring, and perhaps even cherishing and loving. It could also bring out a somewhat greedy side, if you are already leaning in that direction.

Natal Pluto On AS (Mild)

This will likely be a place of considerable challenge, somewhere you will change or be changed ineluctably and without quarter. In English, that's do or die for you and those around you, though not necessarily quite that literal. You'll find that either you don't have much choice about what goes on here or that you have to take total control in order to be sure of getting what you want. It may be a great place for life lessons, but they may not be easy, at least at first. Faith, and what it takes to follow it, is at a premium here. Determination is the name of the game, and be as willing to force a hand as to have your own forced, depending on who's better armed. Know when to hold up, fold up, walk away, or run and you'll be OK. Stay here for long and you'll be a changed person, but don't feel you have to, because no one expects it of you. But when you just can't help it, this is where you'll find a run for your money, where you'll be playing for keeps.

Natal Sun On IC (Mild)

This is an easy place to expand and make your mark, because for some reason you'll feel like you have a firm foundation from which you can stride out with confidence. Your communication with the surroundings will come from within, so you'll be able to get your meaning across even if you don't speak the language. Just smile and be positive and sincere and everyone will pretty much know what you mean and be receptive to your message. If you want to be at the center of things, this is a good place, where people will adopt you and make a circle of attention and hospitality around you based on your confidence and attitude. Just go and sit in the center of the square and you'll feel like you're at the center of things -- and if you choose to, you will be. It will be important to start from generalities here and then move on to specifics -- don't come on with a set agenda, just bring your personality and see what builds from there. You're a sunshine superman regardless of your gender, so let it play.

Paran Latitude Lines

Saturn-Pluto Latitude Line at 36N58'58"

When you've been to Hell and back, you've become a person changed for the better -- it's just that the experience is a little depressing when you're in the middle of it. Here you may more greatly notice your down side and confront feelings of abandonment and hopelessness that are the very antithesis of the light. It's in everyone, some more than others, and you'll find it at your beck and call here if you choose to, perhaps even if you don't. If you've resolved most of those issues, you won't really notice it all that much. If not, this may not be the place to go to party down and forget your troubles.
